

National Call-In Day on Iran
Tuesday, June 10th

Tell Congress You Want Direct Dialogue
Not War with Iran

The same people who called for attacking Iraq now are raising the drumbeat for military action against Iran. Despite the November 2007 U.S. National Intelligence Estimate concluding that Iran had halted its nuclear weapons program, the Bush administration is bolstering its case for war by labeling Iran one of the greatest threats to American security.

Bombing Iran would bring disastrous consequences.

- The entire Middle East likely would descend into further violence putting the well-being of innumerable civilians at risk.
- U.S. standing in the world would plummet and oil prices would soar.
- A U.S. attack would only strengthen hardliners in Iran.

Current U.S. policies are not working. Threats of military attacks and regime change, while refusing to talk with Iran until they stop enriching uranium is only heightening tensions.

Call your Congressional Representatives on Tuesday, June 10th:
1-800-788-9372

- Tell them to work for direct, unconditional, and comprehensive talks between the U.S. and Iran;
- The U.S. and Iran share common interests in a stable Iraq, Middle East and Afghanistan.
- The U.S. pursued negotiations with North Korea and Libya—it's time to talk with Iran.

Tell your Congressional leaders that you want dialogue not war!

National Call-In Day for Dialogue with Iran, Tuesday, June 10th

Sponsored by: The Campaign for a New American Policy on Iran
www.newiranpolicy.org